

Main Street Monday!

Nov. 7, 2014

Happenings Around the State

Just a reminder that the American Association for State and Local History (AASLH) is holding their 2015 annual meeting in Louisville from September 16-20, 2015. Session proposals are due on November 17. For more information, <http://blogs.aaslh.org/aaslh-issues-2015-call-for-proposals/>. The introduction to the session proposal form is also attached. We hope you will consider submitting a proposal.

I know many of you are in the throws of the upcoming Holiday Season and while we want our merchants to be extremely successful don't ever loose site that those parades and events are creating memories of a downtown to cherish for a child and remember this....

Nothing you do for children is ever wasted.
—Garrison Keillor

From Paris to Paducah, Small Business Saturday being delivered!

Something to R&D, window signs from Boston

Happy Birthday today to Lori Puchino, Mt. Washington!

Congratulations to Main Street Directors, Darlene Gooch, Russellville and Beverly Ingram, Taylorsville on their re-elections to their city commissioners seat! Way to go ladies!

Toot Your Horn!

Here's a great idea from Henderson that you may want to replicate!

Looking for the perfect gift for the holidays or just a way to say thank you?? The Downtown Henderson Partnership has gift certificates available in any denomination. These gift certificates may be used at any of our Downtown businesses who are DHP members!!

Middlesboro is mentioned in NMSC Main St. weekly today! Don't forget to vote for their music in their city!

Small businesses can still receive free #ShopSmall merchandise for #SmallBizSat, Nov 29. Invite customers into your business with items such as tote bags, a welcome mat, and more. Supplies limited. Ends 11/14. Terms apply. Visit <http://amex.co/1yHy0kT> The bags this year are much nicer and made in in the USA.

←Shopping Small in Harrodsburg!!!!

Guess which MS director attended the CMA awards in Nashville on Wed! Jacob Roan!

